

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

GOLDEN INSURANCE COMPANY,

Plaintiff,

-against-

FEDERAL INSURANCE COMPANY,

Defendant.

17-CV-5390 (LTS) (BCM)

ORDER

BARBARA MOSES, United States Magistrate Judge.

On February 11, 2020, the Court issued an Order (Dkt. No. 165) scheduling a telephonic status conference for February 26, 2020. On February 13, 2020, plaintiff filed a letter (Dkt. No. 166) reporting that the remaining parties had no outstanding disputes between them and "agree[d] that no further proceedings are necessary." Later that day, the Court issued an Order (Dkt. No. 167) adjourning the February 26 telephonic conference, sine die, "[b]ased on the parties' representations," and directing the parties to "promptly file a proposed stipulation and order (signed by all parties) dismissing this action for the district judge's signature."

Despite the passage of six weeks since the Court's February 13 Order, the parties have failed to file a stipulation resolving this action. No later than April 3, 2020, the parties shall file a proposed stipulation dismissing all remaining claims and closing this case. If the parties are unable to agree on the form of a proposed stipulation, they shall file a joint letter, not exceeding two pages, explaining their areas of disagreement, without argument, and proposing two dates for a telephonic conference with the Court to take place the week of April 6, 2020.
